

I feel that XM Radio should be allowed to broadcast items of local interest such as Traffic and Weather. When consumers are able to choose from several sources of information, there will be competition to make each provider of that information strive to be the best at the most reasonable price.